IMMEDIATE RELEASE

DocuWare Enterprise Server 5-Star Certified

BLI Certifies DocuWare's Latest Version with Top Ranking

New Windsor NY, – August 14, 2012 – DocuWare Corporation, a leader in the Integrated Document Management industry, has received certification for its ENTERPRISE Server 5 and its two most recent Service Packs.

DocuWare is pleased to announce that Buyers Laboratory Inc. (BLI) has just issued a new Solution Report certifying version 5.1c SP1 and SP2 for their Enterprise Server 5. This certification follows the 2010 Document Management Software Assessment testing of DocuWare ENTERPRISE Server in 12 categories. The categories included were: Feature Set, Ease of Use, Security, Software Integration, Training, Upgrade Path and Global Business Readiness. Overall, the highest rating of 5 stars was awarded to DocuWare.

Greg Schloemer, president of DocuWare Corporation, recognizes the importance of this comprehensive performance review and the value it adds to the company's document management products: "The Service Pack updates introduced several new features, including CONNECT to Outlook which offers direct email storage into DocuWare with immediate access to the stored email. Dealers in our reselling network continue to benefit as they offer a document management solution that meets the highest standards in our industry. And these easy-to-use features add further value to their customers' automated business workflows. "

In business for over 50 years, BLI is considered one of the imaging industry's leading independent testing and review providers for MFPs, printers, scanners and software solutions and products. Learn more at www.buyerslab.com.
